

16 Free and Great Value Things to Do in West Sussex

#SummerinWestSussex

Having fun doesn't need to cost a fortune. Be inspired by these free and low-cost ideas to explore what's going on across West Sussex this summer.

- Solve the Mystery - Pick up a new free Mystery Trail from the local library in one of seven pretty Horsham District towns (Horsham, Southwater, Steyning, Pulborough, Billingshurst, Storrington, Henfield) and follow the clues to solve the crime. Essentially an outdoor escape room, Whistlestop Arts have put together an intriguing tale where you are the detective. MYSTERY TRAILS | Whistlestoparts
- Hop on a bus - Explore Britain's newest and largest National Park, the South Downs National Park and see some of the most breath taking views in the area from the top deck Eight top views from buses in the South Downs - South Downs National Park Authority. There are many trails, walks and cycle routes once you get off too Walking trails - South Downs National Park Authority including the iconic South Downs Way.
- Visit Chichester Cathedral for free – There's so much to discover in this stunning Cathedral that has been the centre of the community in Chichester for more than nine hundred years. It is the only English Cathedral with a surviving detached medieval Bell Tower and is stuffed full of iconic artworks including the part of a Roman mosaic floor and the glorious Marc Chagall Window.
